THISTLE GROUP

"service, strength and quality"

Thistle Group is a Scottish company established in 1978. The company has a very close association with the offshore oil & gas and commercial marine fishing industry and operates its services on an international scale.

The Group operates three specialist business streams covering all aspects of the industry, Thistle Marine, Thistle Hydraulic Solutions and Thistle Design & Engineering. Together they provide a comprehensive team of specialists with a proven capability and industry knowledge to undertake the most demanding of projects.

Thistle Group has the expertise to conceptualise and then engineer an appropriate solution within budget and on schedule. Since its formation, Thistle Group has consistently provided a service that delivers maximum value to the oil & gas, fishing and marine industry.
